OCTOBER MEETING – OCTOBER 15 ASCENSION LUTHERAN CHURCH 7 PM

Pat German's Inspirational Trunk Show

Pat continues to be sought after by quilt guilds for her inspiring and humorous programs and workshops despite her desire to retire at some point in time! She has been on staff with Jenny Beyer's seminar at Hilton Head for the past 27 years, has owned & operated 2 quilt shops, has owned one of the largest mail order template businesses in the U.S. and was the director of the "Appalachian Quilting Party" for 10 years. She is currently entering juried shows and has her quilts in permanent collections of cultural museums, corporate offices and private collections. She is now only doing programs and workshops with groups that she finds both interesting and exciting and looks forward to seeing our guild members at our October meeting. Please welcome Pat German!

If The Stitches Aren't In...
Then It's Too Late!

But it's not too late to ...

- Sell your raffle quilt tickets
- Make Boutique items
- Make goodies for Sylvia and the kitchen
- Be on time and work your shifts
- Show up for take down or volunteer to help

The quilts are hanging – and the show looks absolutely gorgeous. The building is overflowing with vibrant color, flamboyant imagination yet sophisticated style . We are a talented group!! For those who haven't ventured to the Arts Council this week but are coming to the Preview Party - hold on to your hats because you are in for a spectacular treat.

Many thanks to all who have worked hard for months and also this week preparing for a quilt show that will leave us all "In Stitches"!

See you tonight and plan for an evening of fun, fellowship, food and fantastic quilts.

Eleanor and Kay

The newsletter will return to its regular format in November. The Oct newsletter will be condensed because of time constraints due to the Quilt Show. Thank you for understanding.
